

Charles Page

Founder of Sand Springs

Picture 1

Source: Images of America:
Sand Springs, Oklahoma

Charles Page's Mother

Mary Ann Gottry Page

Picture 2

Source: A Fool's Enterprise:
The Life of Charles Page

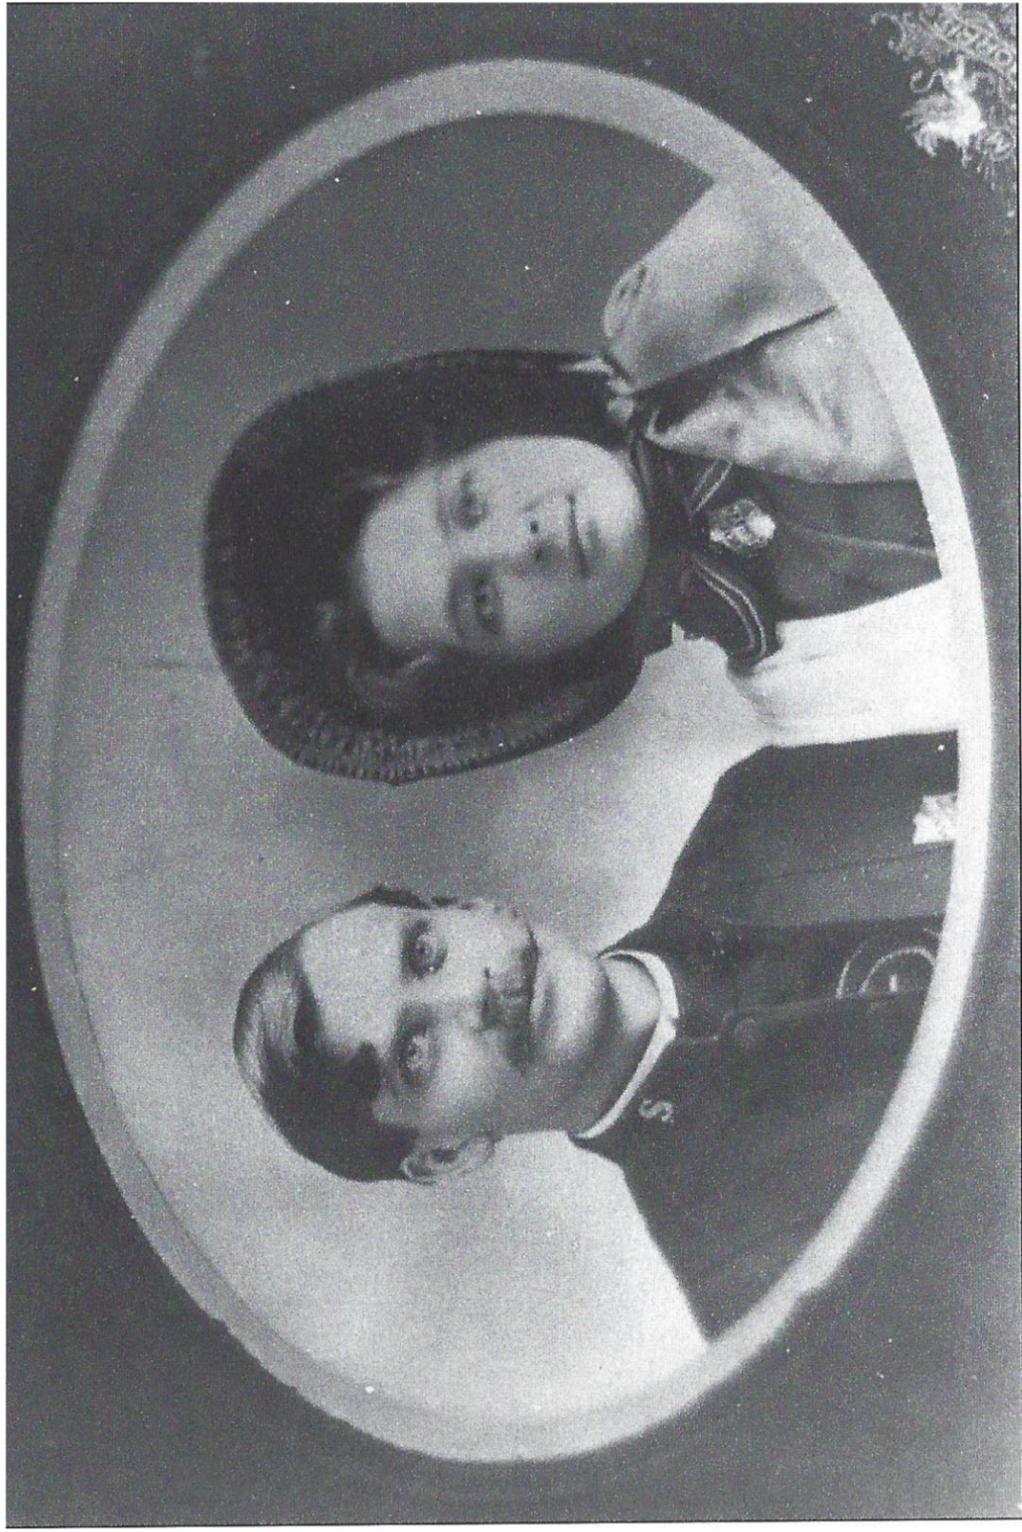

Charles Page's 1st Oil Well

Elan Orcutt Number 1

Picture 3

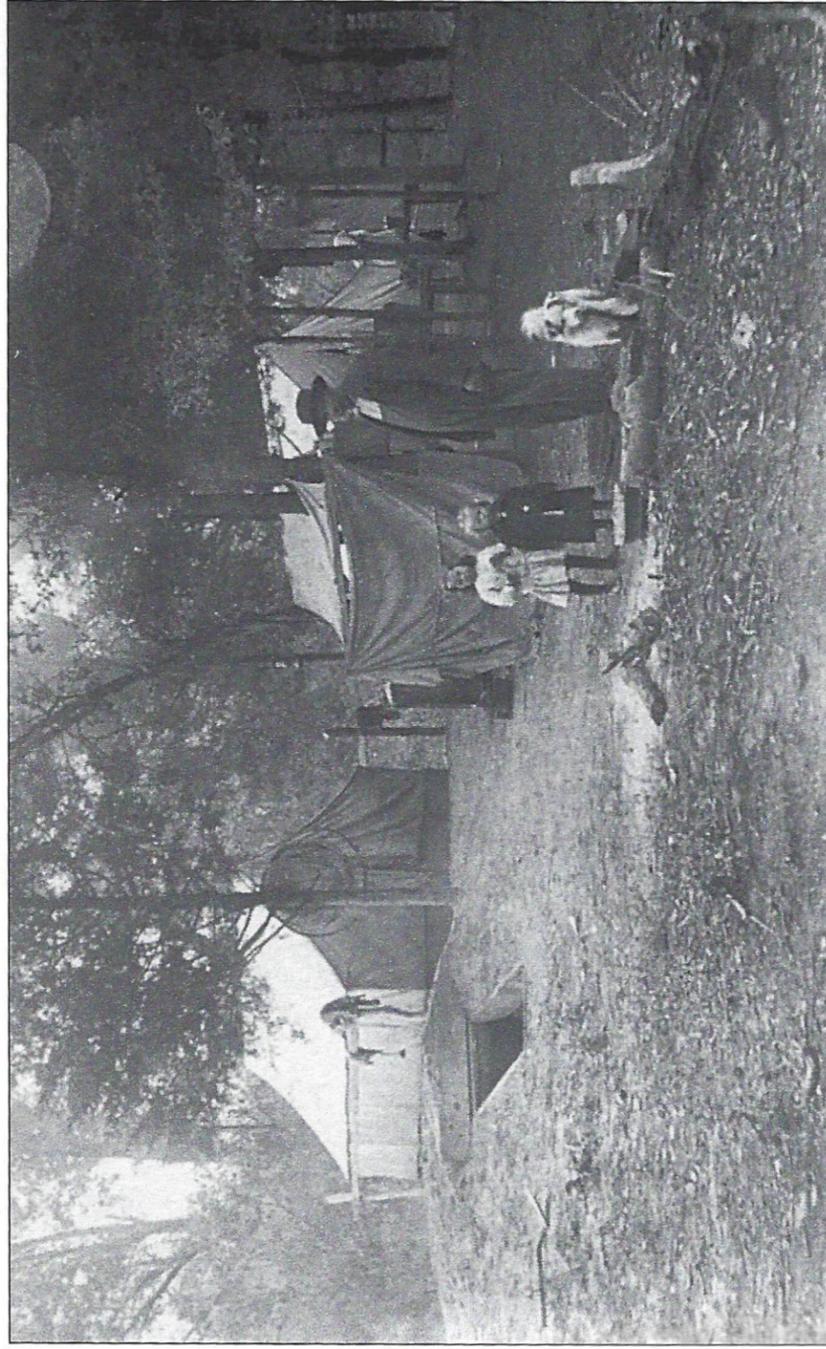

Source: Images of America:
Sand Springs, Oklahoma

Picture 4

Captain and Mrs. Breeding

Source: Images of America: Sand Springs,
Oklahoma

Picture 5

Tents were the first place the children's lived in Sand Springs

Source: Images of America: Sand Springs,
Oklahoma

Picture 7

Sand Springs Street Creamery

Source: Images of America: Sand Springs, Oklahoma

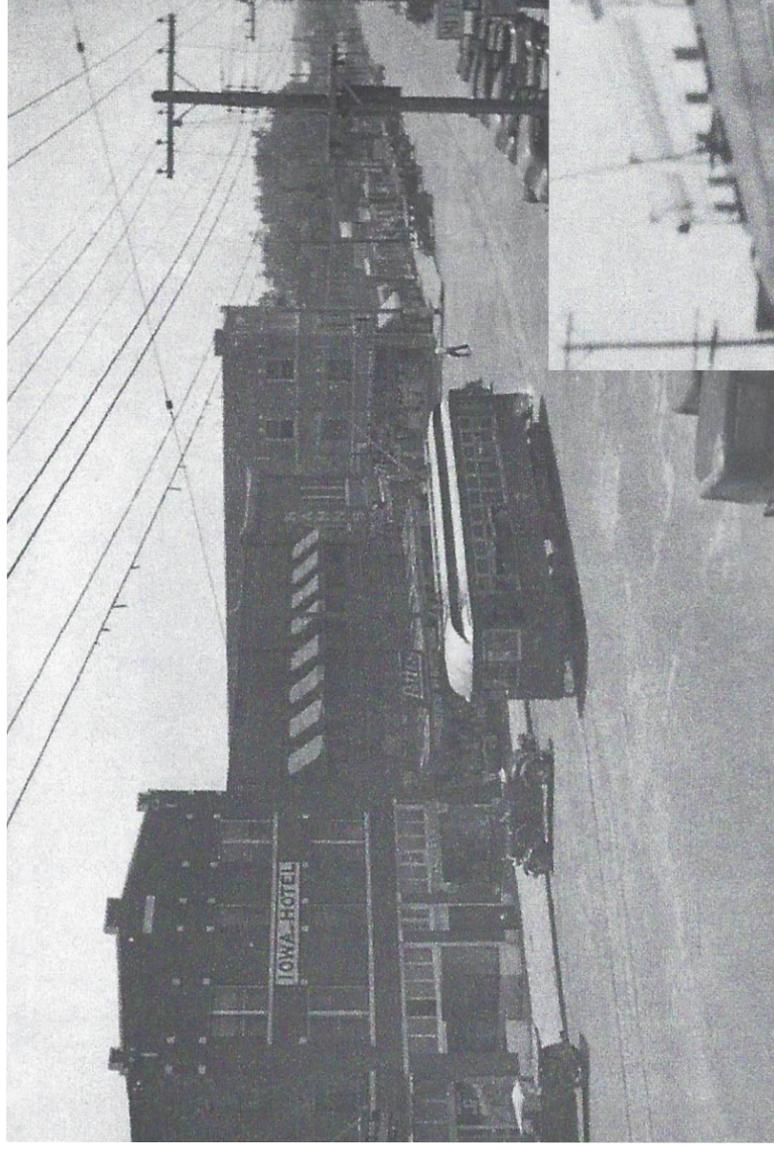

Picture 8

Learning to Ride Horses at the Children's Home

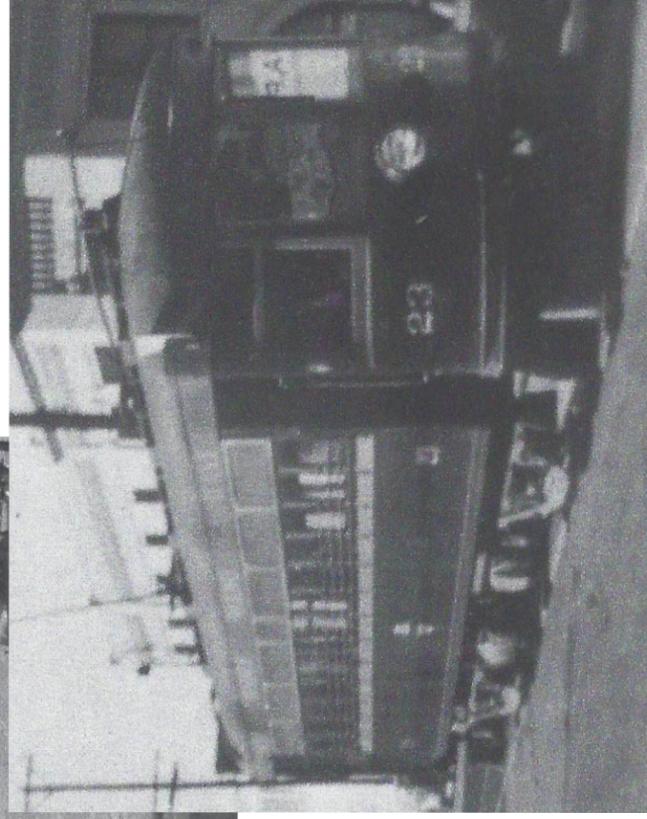

Source: Images of America: Sand Springs, Oklahoma

Picture 9
Source: Images of America: Sand Springs,
Oklahoma

Sand Springs Street Car

Picture 10
Source: Images of America: Sand Springs,
Oklahoma

Ed Galloway, Master Wood Carver

Taught wood-carving to children at the Sand Springs Children's Home

Picture 11 Source: Images of America: Sand Springs, Oklahoma

Christmas Dinner at the Children's Home

Picture 12 Source: Images of America: Sand Springs, Oklahoma

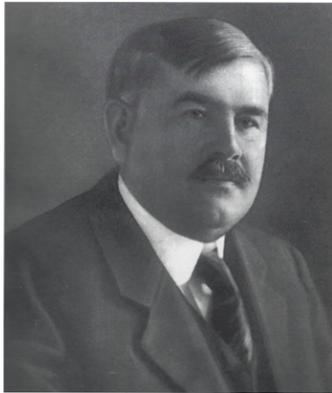

Mrs. Lucile Page

Donated a library in her husband's honor
Inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame in 1958

Picture 12 Source: Images of America: Sand Springs, Oklahoma

Picture 13 Source: Images of America: Sand Springs, Oklahoma

Charles Page,
Founder of the city
of Sand Springs

Charles Page's Mother

Charles Page's oil well

Gave away part of his money